10.1b Gaddesby School Community Ltd Privacy Notice

Introduction

GSC is committed to ensuring that any personal data we hold about you and your child is protected in accordance with data protection laws and is used in line with your expectations.

This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use and protect it.

What personal data do we collect?

GSC collect personal data about you and your child to provide care and learning that is tailored to meet your child's individual needs. We also collect information in order to verify your eligibility for free childcare as applicable.

Personal details that we collect about your child include:

- your child's name, date of birth, address, health and medical needs, development needs, and any special educational needs.

Where applicable, GSC will obtain child protection plans from social care and health care plans from health professionals.

GSC will also ask for information about who has parental responsibility for your child and any court orders pertaining to your child.

Personal details that we collect about you include:

- your name, home and work address, phone numbers, emergency contact details, and family details also any financial information pertaining to or required for, Free Early Educational Entitlement

This information will be collected from you directly in the registration form.

If you apply for up to 30 hours free childcare, GSC will also collect:

- your national insurance number or unique taxpayer reference (UTR), if you're self-employed. We may also collect information regarding benefits and family credits that you are in receipt of.

Why GSC collect this information and the legal basis for handling your data

GSC use personal data about you and your child in order to provide childcare services and fulfil the contractual arrangement you have entered. This includes using your data to:

- contact you in case of an emergency
- to support your child's wellbeing and development
- to manage any special educational, health or medical needs of your child whilst at our setting
- to carry out regular assessment of your child's progress and to identify any areas of concern

- to maintain contact with you about your child's progress and respond to any questions you may have
- to process your claim for up to 30 hours free childcare (only where applicable)
- to keep you updated with information about our service

With your consent, GSC will also record your child's activities for their individual learning record. This WILL include photographs. You will have the opportunity to give / withdraw your consent at any time, for images taken by confirming so in writing.

GSC have a legal obligation to process safeguarding related data about your child should we have concerns about their welfare. GSC also have a legal obligation to transfer records and certain information about your child to the school that your child will be attending (see Transfer of Records policy).

Who GSC share your data with?

For GSC to deliver childcare services we will also share your data as required with the following categories of recipients:

- Ofsted – during an inspection or following a complaint about our service
- banking services to process chip and pin and/or direct debit payments (as applicable)
- the Local Authority (where you claim up to 30 hours free childcare as applicable)
- the government's eligibility checker (as above)
- our insurance underwriter (if applicable)

- the school that your child will be attending

GSC will also share your data if:

- If we are legally required to do so, for example, by law, by a court or the Charity Commission;
- to enforce or apply the terms and conditions of your contract with GSC;
- to protect your child and other children; for example, by sharing information with social care or the police;
- it is necessary to protect our/or others rights, property or safety;
- GSC transfer the management of the setting, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective buyer, so they may continue the service in the same way.

GSC will never share your data with any other organisation to use for their own purposes

How do GSC protect your data?

GSC protect unauthorised access to your personal data and prevent it from being lost, accidentally destroyed, misused, or disclosed by:

Storing all relevant confidential documents /data in a secure place inside a lockable cupboard- including only giving access to said information – on a need-to-know basis

How long does GSC retain your data?

GSC retain your child's personal data for up to 3 years after your child no longer uses our setting, or until our next Ofsted inspection after your child leaves our setting. Medication records and accident records are kept for longer according to legal requirements. Your child's learning and development records are maintained by GSC and handed to you when your child leaves.

In some instances (child protection, or other support service referrals) we are obliged to keep your data for longer if it is necessary to comply with legal requirements (see our Children's and Provider Records policies).

Automated decision-making

GSC do not make any decisions about your child based solely on automated decision-making.

Your rights with respect to your data

You have the right to:

- request access, amend or correct your/your child's personal data
- request that we delete or stop processing your/your child's personal data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing; and
- request that we transfer your, and your child's personal data to another person

If you wish to exercise any of these rights at any time or if you have any questions, comments or concerns about this privacy notice, or how GSC handle your data please contact our manager. If you continue to have concerns about the way your data is handled and remain dissatisfied after raising your concern with GSC, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or ico.org.uk/
